

WEBSITES FOR FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Below is a list of websites that provide a considerable wealth of information on companies and investment terms. This list is intended to provide a starting point for the Centre Region Model Investment Club (CRMIC) partners to broaden their knowledge for preparing stock studies and to expand their personal investing knowledge. Club Partners are encouraged to go beyond this list as they advance their overall knowledge in the world of investment.

Note: Websites undergo frequent revisions. You will have to experiment to find those sites that best fit your needs.

<http://www.betterinvesting.org> - This is BetterInvesting's website. A treasure trove of information on BetterInvesting's (BI) investment tools, software, books and supplies, seminars and other educational activities as well as current and back issues of the BetterInvesting magazine.

Check out the Central Pennsylvania Chapter website at the BI website. After you log'in to the BI website scroll down on the left side of page to the section entitled My Chapter. Click on Visit My Chapter to access information.

<http://finance.yahoo.com> - All things to all people. In addition to company news and quotes on individual stocks, the site provides shortcuts to other popular investment sites. Great website for historical prices, earnings releases, financial statements, and more. The website is easy to navigate.

<https://seekingalpha.com> – Excellent website for investors. You can access information on individual stocks and much more. Subscribe for a company's news to be sent to your inbox.

<http://www.zacks.com> – This is a friendly-user financial website for gathering information on publicly traded companies plus many other tools such as a stock screener. Easy to navigate.

<http://www.hoovers.com> – A friendly-user financial website. Free information on this website includes an overview of the company, SEC filings, financial reports, news, and more.

<http://www.bloomberg.com> – A financial website for quotes, charts, and news plus more.

<http://www.morningstar.com> - This site is especially useful for analyzing mutual funds.

<http://bigcharts.marketwatch.com> - Website is excellent for obtaining technical analysis (price) charts, historical prices plus industry and sector information.

<http://money.cnn.com> - The financial news segment of CNN. Easy to navigate.

<http://www.fool.com> - A wide variety of information on investing in general as well as information on individual stocks.

<https://www.msn.com/en-us/money> - Quotes, a stock screener, and more investing information available here.

<http://www.investopedia.com> – Great website for tutorials and a financial dictionary.

<http://www.sec.gov/index.htm> - The home page for the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Company financial filings are posted on this website.

www.annualreportservice.com - Allows you to order hard copies or to download or read annual reports online; also provides direct links to companies' home pages.

www.investorprotection.org - A site designed to educate investors against fraud and to explain what to do to settle complaints against brokers and other investment professionals.
